Come and relax in our campsite on the edge of Moselle. It extends over 14 hectares including 6 hectares of water. It includes a beautiful play area and a fishing area.

Nestled in the heart of the country of Three Borders (Luxembourg, Germany, France) this campsite welcomes you in a true green setting, ideally located on the edge of a meander of the Moselle, on the way to Compostela, thus favoring peace and tranquility.

You can go about many activities, thanks to its proximity to the international bike path. Along the Moselle, the latter will offer you wonderful hours of cycling, tranquility and well-being, with the possibility of joining Metz or Trier.
